

Head Out to the Bush!

The Timberland Asset Class—An Educational Tour

May 12, 2009

Latrobe Valley
Victoria, Australia

Join us for a memorable day trip to the Latrobe Valley in Victoria for an educational timberland investment seminar. Located 150 kilometers from downtown Melbourne, this region is comprised of a variety of landscapes including the Tarra Bulga National Park, one of the largest cool temperate rainforests in the southern hemisphere.

Tour/Discussion Highlights

Tour Hancock Victorian Plantations an actively managed forest operation - Australia's largest private timber plantation Company that is jointly owned by Australian and US superannuation funds. Discussion topics include:

- Why invest in timberland?
- How does timberland fit within a diversified portfolio?
- What are the risks in timberland investing?
 - Price, fire and liquidity
- What is the global outlook for timberland investments?

The trip will also include a short walk in the magnificent mountain ash forest in Tarra Bulga National Park.

Logistics

The tour will depart from the Park Hyatt Hotel on Tuesday, May 12 at 7:30 AM and return to the hotel at approximately 6:00 PM. Lunch will be provided.

To Register:

Please contact Bonnie Tse at +852 2842 6956
or email: bonnie.tse@iiconferencesasia.com

For more details, please kindly visit:
www.iiconferences.com/AIMS09.html

An AIFC Global Resource Management Company

Hosted and Sponsored by the Hancock Timber Resource Group